The Consortium for Illinois Learning Communities (CILC) invites faculty, staff, and administrators involved with or interested in establishing learning communities (LCs) at two- and four-year colleges/universities from across the country to submit proposals for sessions focusing on innovative course offerings, programs, pedagogies, and assessment efforts. Sessions should contain interactive elements between presenters and audience members and should be no longer than 45 minutes.

Session leaders should explain how their institutions' LC efforts benefitted from the prior experiences of others in collaboration with their own efforts concerning topics such as

- Developing and maintaining institutional support for LCs
- Curricular Design
- Marketing and recruiting both faculty and students
- Faculty Development
- Student classroom engagement
- Equity and Inclusion
- Other

They should explain how collaboration with stakeholders on their campus helped build support for their efforts, and, where appropriate, how their own institutional environment required changes to fit their own circumstance, and how their lessons could apply to attendees.

Please submit all proposals by no later than

February 10, 2024

We encourage proposals from across the country!
